

ANDRES CABRERA

Andres started swimming at the age of eight for McAllen Swim Club in south Texas. During his time there he finaled in multiple age group state meets and was selected for the south Texas Zone team where he competed in Florida. When he moved to Arizona he joined AFOX and he became the captain of his high school team. He went on to join multiple masters programs while focusing on school work.

Andres has been a part of learn to swim programs and coaching programs since he was 15 years old. He has been teaching swim classes for nearly a decade. Beyond his time at summer swim classes and Aqua-Tots, Andres ran a community swim program where he organized, wrote and established a learn to swim program for all levels. His coaching career started for the city of Phoenix and went on to the City of Surprise where he became the head coach of the Surprise Storm club team. Here, Andres coached the highest level Senior group to State, Zones, and Sectionals.

Andres is passionate about coaching swimmers of all levels and ensuring they progress to the best of their ability. He believes swimming is for everyone and finds joy in making sure swimmers reach their swimming potential!

Andres started swimming at the age of eight for McAllen Swim Club in south Texas. During his time there he finaled in multiple age group state meets and was selected for the south Texas Zone team where he competed in Florida. When he moved to Arizona he joined AFOX and he became the captain of his high school team. He went on to join multiple masters programs while focusing on school work.

Andres has been a part of learn to swim programs and coaching programs since he was 15 years old. He has been teaching swim classes for nearly a decade. Beyond his time at summer swim classes and Aqua-Tots, Andres ran a community swim program where he organized, wrote and established a learn to swim program for all levels. His coaching career started for the city of Phoenix and went on to the City of Surprise where he became the head coach of the Surprise

Storm club team. Here, Andres coached the highest level Senior group to State, Zones, and Sectionals.

Andres is passionate about coaching swimmers of all levels and ensuring they progress to the best of their ability. He believes swimming is for everyone and finds joy in making sure swimmers reach their swimming potential!

