Adversity: JAG Qualifiers

Adversity does not build character ... it reveals it. (Anonymous)

The JAG Last Ditch meet was scheduled for this past weekend, May 30-31. Even though the meet was cancelled, we have 19 characters (swimmers) who have already qualified. So we'd like to acknowledge them. Many of these events were qualified with SCY times. A few times qualified from last season's Long Course season.

WRAP UP

Adversity introduces a man to himself. (Albert Einstein)

We all (coaches, parents, swimmers) know if we could have competed in a Long Course season we would have qualified a lot more. Next year.

In the meantime we are asking all our swimmers and parents to have faith and confidence in the knowledge we have a strong management team working on plans trying to balance the safety of our kids with the need to get our team back into the water.

So I say to all our swimmers. “I’d like to introduce you to a person who is going through some of the most trying and challenging of times in the history of the world, who is facing the adversity with grace, and who will come through this a better and stronger person. Now look in the mirror and say, ‘Hi’.”
