- Each session requires 30+ officials, which means lots of opportunity to earn your volunteer hours
- Most sessions are 4-4.5 hours
- Officiating allows you to be on the pool deck, which is the BEST place to watch your child swim.
- Depending on the session, you will be fed before or after, but definitely during!
- After working a session, be sure to log in to your Swim Ontario Officials' Account to log your experience into your "deck log."
- Intro to swimming and Safety Marshal being offered THIS Thursday, October 19.

Fundraising Report

- Last year's raffle:
  - 2851 of the 3000 tickets printed were sold
  - Prizes $3000; $1500; $750; $375
  - $28 510 in sales - prize money and costs = $22 341.25
- This money goes to offset the cost of lane fees
- This year we have printed 2800 as last year many families sold over their amount- this keeps us in compliance of having 20% revenue go to prizes
- Each member family is responsible for selling 30 tickets for $300
- Ticket stubs & E-transfer due Nov 17th- credit card to be charged Nov. 20th
- Draw is Nov. 25th on deck at the 13 and over finals
- Please PICK-UP tickets before you leave tonight....thank you!
