

RICHMOND RAPIDS SWIM CLUB Privacy Policy

In this document, "Organization" refers to the Richmond Rapids Swim Club.

Policy Statement

The Organization is committed to providing our members with exceptional service. Where providing this service involves the collection, use and disclosure of some personal information about our members, protecting their personal information is one of our highest priorities.

While the Organization has always respected our member's privacy and safeguarded their personal information, we have strengthened our commitment to protecting personal information as a result of British Columbia's Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA or the "Act"). PIPA sets out the ground rules for how B.C. organizations may collect, use, and disclose personal information.

The Organization will inform our members of why and how we collect, use, and disclose their personal information, obtain their consent where required, and only handle their personal information in a manner that a reasonable person would consider appropriate in the circumstances.

This Privacy Policy, in compliance with PIPA, outlines the principles and practices we will follow in protecting members' personal information. Our privacy commitment includes ensuring the accuracy, confidentiality, and security of our members' personal information and allowing our members to request access to, and correction of, their personal information.

Scope of this Policy

This Privacy Policy applies to the Organization and its membership. This Policy also applies to any service providers collecting, using, or disclosing personal information on behalf of the Organization.

1. Definitions

Terms in this Policy are defined as follows:

- a) Personal Information – means information about an identifiable individual. Personal information does not include contact information (described below).
- b) Contact information – means information that would enable an individual to be contacted at a place of business and includes name, position name or title, business telephone number, business address, business email or business fax number. Contact information is not covered by this policy or PIPA.
- c) Member – means a registered swimmer, swimmers' parent, coach, official, volunteer or Board member.
- d) Privacy Officer – means the individual designated responsibility for ensuring that the Organization complies with this Policy and PIPA.

2. Collecting Personal Information

- a) Unless the purposes for collecting personal information are obvious and the member voluntarily provides their personal information for those purposes, we will communicate the purposes for which personal information is being collected, either orally or in writing, before or at the time of collection.

b) We will only collect member information that is necessary to fulfill the following purposes:

- To verify identity
- For registration with Swim BC and Swimming Canada
- To ensure swimmers compete in age-appropriate environments
- To establish athlete eligibility for selection to teams
- To establish pertinent baseline performance data to assist coaching decisions in a competitive or training setting
- To report non-identifying, demographic and participation statistics to funders, sponsors and other authorized third parties
- To report and publish athletes' names, genders, ages, club affiliations on the Organization's website or in results, news releases and ranking reports
- To make direct contact with registrants, volunteers, and staff as necessary for the operation of the Organization
- To send out association membership information

3. Consent

- a) The Organization will obtain member consent to collect, use or disclose personal information (except where, as noted below, we are authorized to do so without consent).
- b) Consent can be provided electronically, or it can be implied where the purpose for collecting using or disclosing the personal information would be considered obvious and the member voluntarily provides personal information for that purpose.
- c) Consent may also be implied where a member is given notice and a reasonable opportunity to opt-out of their personal information being used for communications and the member does not opt-out.
- d) Subject to certain exceptions (e.g., the personal information is necessary to provide the registration and competition entry, and results ranking service, or the withdrawal of consent would frustrate the performance of a legal obligation), members can withhold or withdraw their consent for the Organization to use their personal information in certain ways. A member's decision to withhold or withdraw their consent to certain uses of personal information may restrict our ability to provide a particular service. If so, we will explain the situation to assist the member in making the decision.
- e) The Organization may collect, use, or disclose personal information without the member's consent in the following limited circumstances.
 - When the collection, use or disclosure of personal information is permitted or required by law,
 - In an emergency that threatens an individual's life, health, or personal security,
 - When the personal information is available from a public source (e.g., a telephone directory),
 - When we require legal advice from a lawyer,
 - For the purposes of collecting a debt,
 - To protect ourselves from fraud,
 - To investigate an anticipated breach of an agreement or a contravention of law
- f) The Organization may use or disclose personal information where personal information collected from or on behalf of another organization without the consent of the individual to whom the information relates, if

- the individual consented to the use of the personal information by the other organization,
- the personal information is used by the Organization solely for the purposes for which the information was previously collected, and
- to assist that organization to carry out work on behalf of the other organization.

4. Using and Disclosing Personal Information

- a) The Organization will only use or disclose member personal information where necessary to fulfill the purposes identified at the collection of, or within this policy.
- b) The Organization will not use or disclose member personal information for any additional purpose unless we obtain consent to do so.
- c) The Organization will not sell member lists or personal information to other parties unless we have consent to do so.

5. Retaining Personal Information

- a) If the Organization uses member personal information to make a decision that directly affects the member, we will retain that personal information for at least one year so that the member has a reasonable opportunity to request access to it.
- b) Subject to 5 (a) above, we will retain member personal information only as long as necessary to fulfill the identified purposes or a legal or business purpose.

6. Ensuring Accuracy of Personal Information

- a) The Organization will make reasonable efforts to ensure that member personal information is accurate and complete where it may be used to make a decision about the member or disclosed to another organization.
- b) Members may request correction to their personal information in order to ensure its accuracy and completeness. A request to correct personal information must be made in writing and provide sufficient detail to identify the personal information and the correction being sought. A request to correct personal information should be forwarded to the Privacy Officer or Provincial Registrar.
- c) If the personal information is demonstrated to be inaccurate or incomplete, we will correct the information as required and send the corrected information to any organization to which we disclosed the personal information in the previous year. If the correction is not made, we will note the members' correction request in the file.

7. Securing Personal Information

- a) The Organization is committed to ensuring the security of member personal information in order to protect it from unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification or disposal or similar risks.
- b) The following security measures will be followed to ensure that member personal information is appropriately protected:
 - physically securing offices where personal information is held,
 - the use of user IDs, passwords, encryption, firewalls; restricting employee access to personal information as appropriate
 - the Club registrar will have access to the database only as it pertains to club registrants. The Swim BC registrar will have access to the database only as it pertains to provincial registrants' members. Swimming Canada as the parent organization will be able to access the collected personal information of all registrants. Full system access is restricted to the CEO, Swimming Canada Registrar, and Information Technology Manager. Information is made available to additional staff members, or the Organization members pursuant to the purposes listed above.

- c) The Organization will use appropriate security measures when destroying member's personal information such as shredding documents and deleting electronically stored information.
- d) The Organization will continually review and update our security policies and controls as technology changes to ensure ongoing personal information security.

8. Providing Members Access to Personal Information

- a) Members have a right to access their personal information, subject to limited exceptions.
- b) A request to access personal information must be made in writing and provide sufficient detail to identify the personal information being sought.
- c) Upon request, we will also tell members how we use their personal information and to whom it has been disclosed if applicable.
- d) The Organization will make the requested information available within 30 business days or provide written notice of an extension where additional time is required to fulfill the request.
- e) If a request is refused in full or in part, we will notify the member in writing, providing the reasons for refusal and the recourse available to the member.

9. Questions and Complaints: The Role of the Privacy Officer or designated individual

- a) The Privacy Officer or designated individual is responsible for ensuring the Organization's compliance with this policy and the Personal Information Protection Act.
- b) Members should direct any complaints, concerns, or questions regarding the Organization's compliance in writing to the Privacy Officer. If the Privacy Officer is unable to resolve the concern, the member may also write to the Information and Privacy Commissioner of British Columbia.

Appendix A – Consent

The Organization will include the following paragraph (or a variation) whenever Personal Information is being collected:

1. I authorize the Organization to collect and use personal information about me for the purposes described in the Privacy Policy.
2. In addition to the purposes described in the Privacy Policy, I authorize the Organization to:
 - a) Distribute my information to Swim BC and Swimming Canada
 - b) Photograph and/or record my image and/or voice and use this material to promote the sport through social media and traditional media such as newsletters, websites, television, film, radio, print and/or display form. I understand that I waive any claim to remuneration for the use of audio/visual materials used for these purposes.
3. I understand that I may withdraw such consent at any time by contacting the Privacy Officer. The Privacy Officer will advise the implications of such withdrawal.

Appendix B – Website Disclaimer

The Organization will include the following copyright and legal disclaimer (or similar statements) in the applicable section on its website:
