

Entering the facility and where to go and sit and wait for instructions once inside.

As the groups come in, they will be sent to a spot reserved for their group only to be given instructions and sent to their lanes. We ask that you remain in your car until the previously staged group has entered the pool deck. The CAST CAMP groups will be entering through the gate area with a door propped open to lessen interactions with Kroc members and staff in the gym area.

