

Clover Aquatics Locker Room and Changing Area Policy

- Deck Changing is always prohibited.
- Use of any audio/video recording device, including cell phones, to take pictures or recordings in locker rooms, restrooms, or changing areas is strictly prohibited.
- Except for athletes on the same team or athletes attending the same competition, non-related adults are not permitted to be alone in locker rooms or changing areas with minor athletes, unless there is an emergency.
- Legal guardians are discouraged from entering locker rooms or changing areas. If a legal guardian enters a locker room/changing area, it must be a same-sex guardian, and this guardian should notify a coach in advance.
- No horseplay.
- No vulgar language, shouting, or gossiping in the locker rooms will be tolerated.
- Respect your own and others' privacy.
- Respect other people's property – do not touch.
- Clover Aquatics staff may perform restroom sweeps before, during, or after practice as deemed necessary, and these sweeps will always be conducted by a same-sex coach.

Reporting Misconduct:

- Report misconduct or rule violations to the club head coach.
- Report abuse to local law enforcement, USA Swimming, and/or U.S. Center for SafeSport.
 - usasswimming.org/report
 - uscenterforsafesport.org

Action Steps for Violation of Policy:

1. The swimmer and/or parent should notify the swimmer's coach of the incident.
2. The swimmer's coach will address the situation with the involved parties and notify the Head Coach.
3. Depending on the incident and the findings of the investigation, disciplinary action will be taken.
4. The Coach and Head Coach will meet with the involved parties
5. If the incident involves sexual misconduct, parents must report it via this link.