

WEEKLY SPLASH

Update for the week of 4/7/2025

SHOWTIME!!!!!!

The season starts on Monday the 7th, I'm sure all the returning swimmers have been counting down the days since we ended. Welcome to all of our new families. This weekly update comes out usually on Sunday night. Please always take a minute to read it. I think between this Splash, the welcome letter and the USA registration letter I have everything covered for this week. See everyone on the deck.
