

Equipment Coordinator - The Equipment Coordinator shall have general charge of the business, affairs, and property of the Equipment Coordinator, which is responsible for the proper storage of timing equipment at a place approved by ARSI. The Equipment Coordinator also shall be responsible for approving arrangements for use of the timing equipment and for taking inventory of the equipment before and after its use.