EXHIBIT B

NIAGARA SWIMMING, INC. STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES ON ETHICAL BEHAVIOR AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST ADOPTED MARCH 2008

Those who choose to serve Niagara Swimming as volunteers are held to a high standard of conduct. As the local arm of USA Swimming, Niagara Swimming is similarly a guardian of Olympic ideals, so in representing Niagara Swimming, volunteers assume an obligation to subordinate their individual interests to the interests and ideals of the Olympic Movement. What may be considered acceptable conduct in some business or personal dealings may be inappropriate in Olympic service.

Niagara Swimming expects that its officers, directors, committee chairs, committee members, coordinators, and other volunteers acting on its behalf, will follow high ethical standards in the performance of their duties. They must do so without personal gain or the perception of bias, favoritism or conflict of interest, in order to avoid any loss or embarrassment to the sport, and they must behave in such a way that trust and public confidence in USA Swimming, Niagara Swimming and the sport are enhanced. Among other considerations, it is important that volunteers avoid any real, potential or perceived conflicts of interest.

While no set of guidelines can guarantee appropriate behavior, the principles that guide behavior in this area are:

1. Not receiving any compensation for, or having any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, in, any transaction to which Niagara Swimming is a party. This principle is to be construed broadly. It includes not only personal or family interest, but also the interest of a group member (leagues or clubs) with which an individual is affiliated or associated. Moreover, for purposes of this statement, "transaction" is used in the broad sense of that term, and is intended to include any action (or decision not to act) that is taken by Niagara Swimming that is specific to a particular athlete or group member (league or club).
2. Making full, accurate and prompt disclosure to the Board of Directors whenever a conflict of interest is a possibility, and not participating in the discussion or evaluation of, or vote on, such transaction.
3. Honoring the confidentiality of information of Niagara Swimming, its athlete, non-athlete and group members (leagues and clubs), and the discussions of the Board of Directors in executive session.

All conduct is founded on the individual's own sense of integrity. Any individual accepting the honor of serving Niagara Swimming must accept the burdens of public disclosure and public scrutiny.

In our complex society, the mixture of volunteer work, business interests, governmental activity, and family relationships often creates potentially conflicting interests. What is required is disclosure of conflicting interests when they arise, and strict non-participation in any evaluation process relating to the matter in question.

The following guidelines are not a precise road map to acceptable conduct. They are signposts. Each individual must find his or her own way.

1. The business of Niagara Swimming is to be conducted in observance of both the spirit and letter of applicable federal and state laws and maintenance of its tax-exempt status.
2. Niagara Swimming properties, services, information, opportunities, authority and influence are not to be used for private benefit.
3. All individuals who participate with Niagara Swimming will disclose the nature and extent of an actual or potential conflict of interest when it arises in the evaluation of an issue or opportunity, and will not participate in the evaluation or discussion of, or vote on, the matter involved. This includes, without limitation, the award of meet sanctions and contracts, the purchase of goods and services, the award of contracts for professional services, and the allocation of Niagara Swimming resources for individual use.
4. Gifts, cash, travel, hotel accommodations, entertainment, or favors are neither to be given nor received, except those of nominal value exchanged in the normal course of business. Gifts and favors from athlete, non-athlete or group members (leagues and clubs) of Niagara Swimming should not ordinarily be accepted. If circumstances render it awkward to refuse such a gift, the donor should be thanked and told the gift is being accepted on behalf of and will be delivered to Niagara Swimming.
5. Expenses incurred in the furtherance of Niagara Swimming business are to be reasonable, necessary and substantiated in accordance with the Policies and Procedures adopted by the Board of Directors from time to time.
6. All are expected to exhibit honesty, loyalty, candor and professional competence in their relationships with Niagara Swimming and with each other.
7. Each individual has the responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of the organization. This includes all sensitive information relating to Niagara Swimming itself, its athlete, non-athlete and group members (leagues and clubs), and the discussions of the Board of Directors in executive session.
