

ATAC Booster Meeting

Date: June 11, 2025

Call to Order Time: The meeting began at 5:39 p.m.

Coaches Report:

Coach Amanda explained that the coaches were very pleased with how well the Gainesville meet went last weekend. The swimmers did a great job, and many had best times. The summer season is off to a great start and there has been a steady amount of kids trying out for the team. She explained that the coaches are excited about the summer developmental meets. The swimmer and job sign-ups for the first two developmental meets are available on the website. The deadlines to sign-up for the summer developmental meets are the Friday before the meets on the following Tuesday. Coach Amanda also stated that the swimmer and job sign-ups for the ATAC Long Course Invitational on June 27-29 are also available on the website. This meet may even have a few international swimmers participating. Lastly, she shared that Ethan and Owen Ekk are doing a great job in Canada and both will qualify for the World Championships.

President Report:

Booster President, Crystal, explained that we will need volunteers for hospitality and timers for the ATAC Long Course Invitational on June 27-29. Crystal also stated that the Treasurer position is still an available board position, and she would really like someone to become hospitality chair. Once we are into the summer season, she will send out an email about possible sponsorship for next year.
