Process to Request Account be put into an “Inactive” or “Closed” Status:

If your swimmer/family will be traveling, is involved with other school programs, or for health reasons is unable to attend practice, your membership fee will be reduced 50% in order to put your account into an “inactive” status, and guarantees you a spot on the team when you return. Notice must be given to your child's coach and to billing [marcelle808@gmail.com] before this “inactive” period begins. If not requested, your account will continue to be billed. Or if requested after the fact, your account may be closed (with no monthly charge), and you will be wait listed should your child wish to return to practice. Should you have any questions, please contact Coach Aaron Saito ajsaito02@gmail.com or [Marcelle Arakaki at marcelle808@gmail.com].

Volunteer Hours: Please review our Team Parent Handbook for more information about volunteer hours and how each family will be charged at the end of our swim year quarter [Sept-Nov; Dec-Feb; March–May; and June-August] should your family be unable to meet the required volunteer hours.

New Swimmer Referral Program: When a new swimmer is referred by an HSC member [family is in good standing], that HSC member will have their next month's dues waived for their first swimmer.
