The Tennessee Interscholastic Swimming Coaches' Association sponsored the Tennessee State High School Championship on February 9-10 at Nashville's Centennial Sportsplex. The meet was hosted by the Nashville Aquatic Club.

845 athletes representing 122 schools competed in this year's championship. The boys' team title was won by the McCallie School with 397.5 points. The girls' team title was won by Girls' Preparatory School with 220 points, only a single point ahead of runner-up Ravenwood High School. Baylor School earned the combined team title with 397.5 points.

There were five state records set throughout the course of the meet. Notably, MLK Magnet senior Spencer Nicholas broke the national public high school record in the 100 butterfly.
