ADAM ENGLAND

From the first time Adam joined a swim team at age 5 he wanted to be just like the “big boys” on the team. He would hang around them and idolized them. He was thrilled when those boys found a Speedo small enough for him. They were always so kind to him and never brushed him aside. He learned at a very young age to look out for and be supportive of others he competed with. He loved everything about swimming. He loved the practices and the meets and the friendships he made. His mom was always nervous if he would make it to the starting block for his race as he always was chatting it up with the other swimmers. He never missed a race. In his mind it was a great day if he had practice and even better if there were two. A good way to honor Adam is to do so through the thoughts and adventures he had with some of his teammates and friends.

Swim teammates said the following quotes about Adam:

- ◆ “When I got my first zones cut and he was more excited than me, jumping up and down and hugging me. It meant a lot to me, as I always saw Adam as an older brother, and someone I could look up to.”
- ◆ “I was sitting in my car before a morning practice, and I didn’t want to swim. Adam parked next to us and when he got out of his car and noticed me still sitting there, he said, ‘come on Hannah if the suns up I’m up’”.
- ◆ “One year at Washington Open we all went to IKEA, and he fit in the kid’s egg chair. Such an Adam thing to do. I think of how much fun we all had that day and how he would always make me laugh”.
- ◆ “I can’t think of Adam though and not remember how he always wanted to be the best whether it was swim or golf, or basketball, hanging out or video games. He was the best kind of friend.”
- ◆ Adam and Aidan were in a fry eating contest at Red Robin. Another teammate said, “it was the slowest eating fry contest ever.”
- ◆ “We were out golfing one day, and Adam’s head was moving up when he hit the ball and so he was topping it. Aidan told him to keep his eyes glued to the ball and count to 3. Adam took this very literally and after he hit, counted to 3 out loud with his eyes glued down to where the ball had been. By the time he looked up he had no idea where his ball went. After a few more hits he got the idea and kept his head still while hitting the ball but followed through to see where it went.”
- ◆ “Adam was the kind of person that when he walked on the pool deck, you knew you were going to have a good day. It wasn't just the jokes and the laughs he brought with him, but you knew he was always there to work hard, and it always made everyone else want to work hard too. It takes a special kind of person to be able to do that and Adam was no exception. I think about him whenever I'm doing something that challenges me because I know he would expect my best effort. He still inspires me today and I miss him dearly”.
