Message from Coach Zane After a Swim Meet

Dear BBSC parents and families,

After a swim meet weekend, it is a great time for swimmers and coaches to evaluate performances and look for ways to improve.

Here are 7 DO's and DON'T's after a swim meet.

1. DO tell you swimmer you greatly enjoyed watching them swim. Whether they got best times or not, it is a blessing to see your child compete and do something they have worked on.
2. DON'T compare your swimmer to other swimmers. I.E. why aren't you as fast as swimmer A. There are many differences between each swimmer and it is unfair to your swimmer to compare them to someone who may have swam longer or is built differently.
3. DO help them with remembering their times and helping them see what his or her goal is (best time, divisional cut, state, etc.). They can write times down and see how far they have to go. Eventually we want them to do this on their own.
4. DON'T discipline them based on whether they get a certain time. You may reward, but know that if you start a reward system you may need to continue it.
5. DO help your swimmer know the importance of the coaches. Ask them what the coach said after swims, not so you can critique the coach, but so you can help affirm what the coach said and see if they are even listening. Coaches should speak to every swimmer after he or she swims.
6. DON'T speak negatively of coaches or team mates. If you have any concerns, please bring them to the coaches in an email to BBSC or to your child's lead coach. We want to create and keep a positive team atmosphere at BBSC, please help to do that.
7. DO celebrate best times, making cuts, being good teammates. You can do this by eating out, spending time together, or however you celebrate. The other side to this is recognizing disappointments and helping your child know this is a part of life and it is also how we develop the ability to overcome and not give up.
