

dumped in 25 to lead East-Chuck Behrends for Western 21 points.

er spending the night in Mat-and driving to Carbondale day, it seemed that Western be worn out, unable to break the 30 year record. The Leatherstocking team had over 40 years of experience. The first half seemed to support theory. Southern seemed to be almost at will against the Western defense. Southern's lead at one point in the first half 5-29 at half time.

in the first part of the second half looked as though Western going to lose its first game of the year.

Southern leading 57-47 with four minutes left things looked black for Western. The Leatherstocking caught fire at this point and scored the Saluki's 18-2 for the rest of the game.

Again it was Behrends and Jack who led the Western attack. Behrends led the scoring during this period as well as for the rest of the game.

He scored nine points during this span and 19 for the night. Jack had 6 points during the eight minutes. Jack picked up 15 of Western's 47 rebounds during the game.

Western's victories, as always, were the result of fine teamwork and outstanding efforts on the part of every member of the team. This was evident to anyone who has seen Western play this year.
