

is Ron English, 6-7 center. sh recently quit the team for unknown reasons.

* * *

STERN MICHIGAN made nes recently by announcing "no aid for athletes" policy. announcement came four s after the IIAC approved, by e of five to two, the subsidi- n of athletes in accordance the North Central Associa- The North Central Associa- allows the support of athletes e extent of complete payment board and rooms, books and n. In addition the school is ved to allot a total of $15.00 month to each athlete for laun- purposes.

STERN MICHIGAN'S policy hat the athlete is entitled to ing other than a chance at one ight jobs available in Bowen d House, each job amounting total of 10 hours work per k. With the exception of these EMC athletes receive no aid tsoever and apparently will tinue to participate in intercol- ate competition as non-subsid- ed athletes.

HIS brings up the question as how Eastern Michigan still intains their high athletic stand- s. Perhaps the athletes are wn by the 32-building campus ch rates as one of the best all college campuses in the ted States or perhaps the prox- y to Detroit and other urban s.

ET'S be idealistic, however, say that the reason for East- s top notch athletic teams is use the athletes simply love tics and to compete in them se they are going to Eastern happy. Western's wrestling team is the best in years, as they have started off the season with non-conference wins over Bradley Uni- versity and Loras College and a recent 2-18 win over Northern Illi- nois. Northern Illinois along with Southern Illinois are ranked as the favorites to cop the IIAC wrestling tournament at the end of this month.

Loyola Swimmers Sink Western

On Friday, January 31, the West- ern Leathernecks swimming team travelled to Chicago where they met the Loyola University swim- ming team.

Loyola proved much too strong as they defeated Western 63-23. Western could muster only one first place in nine events, and that was gained by Beattie, Western's ace diver.

Second place finishers were Rusk in the 80 yard free style; Barrett in the diving event; Oberg in the 200 yard butterfly; and Vincek in the 200 yard breast- stroke.

Following are the results of the meet:

220 yd. free style — Barrett 3rd, Foster 4th.

50 yd. free style—Rusk 2nd.

Diving—Beattie 1st, Barrett 2nd.

200 yd. Butterfly — Oberg 2nd; Vincek 3rd.

100 yd. free style—Rusk 3rd.

200 yd. back stroke—Crowe 3rd.

440 yd. free-style—Bar rett 3rd, Foster 4th.

200 yd. breast stroke — Vincek 2nd, Beattie 3rd.

the afternoon round, w and King getting the pin

Wheaton's Crusad maximum mileage out- dividual match victories off with top honors in- gular meet with 48 po- ern placed second with- ed by Augustanas 24. S on the basis of five poi- and forfeitures, three decisions and two for d Tom King 123 lb. got pin of the touramnt a- ed Auga's Kranz in 43 the afternoon round he by Wheaton's Conferen- pion.

Fred Sandoval 130 lb first match to undefea- Hill of Augie and had his second match to Wh- suffered an injury.

Frank Donato 147 lb hard fought decision t conference champion of Wheaton, Donato strong in the afternoo- decision Augie.

Bill Myers 157 lb. s improvement as he Augie and was pinned

Jerry Mac Beth 167 tle trouble has he decis- in the first round, and fought decision over second round.

Willie Spates 177 lb competition as he deci- in the first round, in he showed he was sup- ning one time Iowa St- Bob Ithefeld of Augie

Bob Elliot, heavyw little time building u to decision his Augi first round, his fin- one of the highlights as he decision big burt from Wheaton.

Summaries.