SAMANTHA ARSENAULT LIVINGSTONE

Samantha Arsenault (born October 11, 1981), later known by her married name Samantha Livingstone, is an American former competition swimmer and Olympic champion. Arsenault represented the United States at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, where she received a gold medal as a member of the winning U.S. team in the women's 4×200-meter freestyle relay, together with teammates Diana Munz, Lindsay Benko and Jenny Thompson. The four Americans set a new Olympic record in the event final of 7:57.80.^[1] Arsenault was born in Peabody, Massachusetts and graduated from Gardner High School. She swam for North Shore Swim Club and Greenwood Memorial Swim Club in Gardner, Massachusetts. She initially attended the University of Michigan and swam for the Michigan Wolverines Swimming and Diving Team. She transferred to the University of Georgia after her freshman year, and finished her college sports career competing for coach Jack Bauerle's Georgia Bulldogs Swimming and Diving team.

When we follow our dreams, we discover the magic inside ourselves.

When we lead with intention,
Cultivate courage and curiosity,
and, learn how to RISE with compassion and grace,
We unlock Lasting Joy on the way to our dreams.

It's a joy that transcends our podium moments, bringing a sense of fulfillment regardless of outcome.

2021-2022 DORSI RAYNOLDS SENIOR DEVELOPMENT COACH OF THE YEAR

Jonathan Castaldo has been the Head Coach of Charles River Aquatics for the past six years. During his tenure as the Head Coach the team has grown in both size and strength. Over the last few years Jonathan has developed his strong Age Group program into one that includes swimmers competing at Futures, Sectionals and beyond.

2021-2022 JEFF JOHNSON AGE GROUP DEVELOPMENT COACH OF THE YEAR

Alessandro Eramo has been the Head Coach at BYB for the last 2 1/2 years. Prior to that he was the Associate Head Coach at the YMCA of the North Shore. This past summer BYB finished 5th overall at the 11-14 Age Group Championships. His team continues to grow and improve under Alessandro's leadership which is indicated by the growing numbers of Championship qualifiers and Top Ten Swimmers.
