

OLYMPIC TRIALS TRIVIA WEEK DAY FOUR

What Olympic Sport is making its debut at this summer's games?

- A: "race car driving"
- B: "Breaking" - Read about Breaking's introduction here!
- C: "Ballroom Dance"
- D: "synchronized rowing"

In 2018, World Aquatics (when it was still FINA) got into a legal dispute over a swim meet that would eventually become the International Swim League (ISL). What was the original meet called?

- A. Energy Standard Cup
- B. Energy for Swim - Read about the beginnings of the ISL here!
- C. Omega Challenge
- D. Champions Swim Series

SwimSwam co-founder Mel Stewart, competed in how many Olympic Games?

- A: 3
- B: 2 - Read more about Mel here!
- C: 1
- D: 0

Of the teams listed below, which has been around the LONGEST?

- A. Greenwood
- B. UVAC - Est. in 1967!!
- C. Cape Cod Swim Club - This was VERY close second, 1971!
- D. MST

NE Olympic Trials qualifier Gerhardt Hoover (CS) recently broke the boys 15-16 200 IM LCM record. Who held the record before him?

- A. Aaron Zhu
- B. Ryan Harty - Here is a link to the announcement!
- C. Josh Parent
- D. Nick D'Innocenzo