

Board report DEI May 2023

One small information meeting about water safety was held on 4/25/23 with an agency called Maine Families. This was informational only and to give families skills and knowledge to share with their children and other parents.

No committee meetings were held.