

Officials Chair Report February

We have a good number of officials that have already signed up to work Winter Championships. More radios are being ordered to make the meet run smoothly at the UMO facility.

We have had a few new officials that took a class in January that are already done all of the qualifications to become certified and have been working meets which has been very encouraging.

I'm looking forward to a great ending to the season,
Nicole Viele