

Jenn Gionfriddo - USFS and PSA Coach

Jenn started skating around the age of 7 and grew up skating at the Eden Prairie Figure Skating Club. She refound her love of skating as an adult and continues to work on her moves in the field and dance disciplines. To share her love for the sport she became a coach in 2021. She enjoys working with skaters on moves in the field, freestyle, and dance. She also loves to work with skaters on confidence and power. Jenn is registered with PSA and USFSA.

Jenn has obtained a Masters Degree in Information Systems Management and a PhD in Psychology. She lives in Chaska and currently works as Senior Director of Data Products and Governance at one of the largest real estate investment and management companies in the US.