

Dax LeDoux, Hip Hop and Jazz Teacher

Dax LeDoux has been dancing with the Red Lodge School of Dance since 2003. He began his dance training with Creative Movement and then transitioned into HipHop two years later. He took HipHop classes for eight years, Tap classes for six years, private Tap lessons for three years, Jazz classes for four years, Modern classes for nine years and private Ballet lessons for four years.

Outside of the Red Lodge School of Dance, Dax has also had years of training. He studied and performed with CDS Dance School in Billings in their HipHop dances for two years. He began doing dance camps in 2010, dancing at more than seven different dance camps for multiple years. He has attended Montana Dance Arts Association camps in Great Falls and Belgrade since 2010. Dax also went to two week long camps at Miss Linda's School of Dance in Great Falls and three dance weekend camps at Tanya's Dance in Belgrade. At one point, Dax traveled to LA twice to perform at DancerPalooza to take week long dance camps from some of the top names in the industry and be part of a music video. Dax has taught five different dance camps of his own at the Red Lodge School of Dance including Adrenaline Rush.

Dax has also been trained in Gymnastics for three years. He started with dance style gymnastics at the Red Lodge School of Dance, then progressed to Olympic style gymnastics at the Billings Gymnastic School and most recently he learned cheerleading style gymnastics at Billings All Star Cheer where he took group classes as well as private lessons.

Some of the well-known performers and choreographers Dax has worked with include Twitch, Kenny Wormald, Bobby Newberry, Randi and Hefa, Rich and Tone Talauega, Brian Freedman, Nick Drago, Trump Card, Daniel Cruz, Dexter Jones, Bosco, Marquez Johnson, Wesley Quinn, and many others.

Dax started student teaching HipHop in 2014 for two years before he took on the responsibilities of the fulltime teacher in 2016. In 2022, he started teaching Acro and Jazz classes. Dax enjoys teaching dance classes and helping students progress and learn, as well as taking classes to continue expanding his knowledge of dance. He looks forward to working with and helping the Red Lodge School of Dance grow for years to come.

