

Modern Dance

Modern dance is a free expressive style of dancing. It started to be developed in the late 19th and early 20th century. In this class students will learn technique and vocabulary and also self-expression.

Modern Dress Code

Hair must be up and away from the face.
No shoes needed. Footless tights or loose pants worn over a leotard or with a form fitted t-shirt or sports top.