

The ACC Mission: To preserve, protect and promote college swimming as a varsity sport so that future generations of swimmers can enjoy the student-athlete experience at all levels.

The ACC Vision: To help American and international swimmers conquer the recruitment process through education, inspiration and communication.

The ACC Way: We will work tirelessly to mentor, support and empower your swimmer to reach his full potential in high school, club and college swimming.

The ACC Family: In order to deliver on our commitment to personalized communications and advisory, we invite a maximum of 20 students/families to join the ACC Family each month.

The ACC Staff: We are a small organization with five former college, high school and club swim coaches who are knowledgeable, passionate and professional.

The Suggested ACC Timeline

8th grade: Build relationships with our staff through educational seminars and individual meetings.

9th grade: Transition successfully to high school academics, athletics and social life. Learn about your wants & needs as it pertains to your future best-fit college.

10th grade: Develop an initial list of colleges by setting healthy expectations and for the college search process. Begin introducing yourself to coaches with the understanding that only Division III coaches can respond directly.

11th grade: Balance your high school lifestyle with the “full-time job” that is communicating with college coaches in the recruitment process. Learn from our advisors how to “interview” with coaches and ask the right questions.

12th grade: Make a commitment, submit your application and learn how to transition to your dream school!

Freshman of college year: Learn how to manage college academics, athletics & social life.
