SWIMMERS OF THE MEET

Novice

- Quinn Jones – Quinn's freestyle is looking much stronger!
- Greta Tew – Greta dropped time in her 50 free and four seconds in her backstroke.

Bronze

- Sarah Beavers – She listened to her coaches' advice and really applied it to her swims. She also improved four of her times.
- Graham Mayberry – Graham improved all of his times and looked great in all of his swims!

Silver

- Ben Little – Swam best times in all five events, dropping a total of 25 seconds!

Gold

- Max Dreisbach – Had five amazing swims, dropped a ton of time and swam like a beast!
- Mia Lachey – Dropped time in all of her events and achieved her first 11-12 JO cut in the 50 free with a time of 28.02! Awesome!

Platinum

- Jonathan Liu – JLi had an amazing day of racing. He swam to best times in all of his events and won the 200 breaststroke in commanding fashion.

Senior

- Abby Newman – Obtained lifetime bests and achieved a JO standard in the 50 free.
- Jason Boothman – Achieved best times and constantly applied improvements from training.

National Team

- Hunter Cook – Hunter had a great swim meet, with new personal bests in the three of his five events, as well as first-place finishes in three events. He has improved tremendously from this time last season!
- Emily Zawadzki – Emily did the 500 free for the first time in many years, recording a best time in the process. She also competed well in her other three events and applied changes that she has made in practice very well.
