SWIMMERS OF THE MEET

Novice

- Cale McNamera – Congratulations to Cale for dropping amazing time and swimming new events! Cale was blazing fast in all his events and especially his butterfly! Way to go, Cale!

Bronze

- Cameron Graham – Cameron had first place finishes in all of her events this weekend, and dropped over a second in her 50 freestyle. She has come a long way this past season, and I am beginning to see her step out of her comfort zone a little more. She asks questions and is receptive to feedback and I am very pleased with the progress she is making. She is a great teammate and a hard worker and I am very excited to see what lies ahead in her swimming journey. Nice job, Cameron!
- Maura McGrath – In the last few weeks Maura has shown me a new level of enthusiasm for swimming and this coach couldn't be happier. I can tell with each race that she is trying to apply new concepts she has learned in practice to her races, and that is a very important skill to have as an 8 year old. She is just now beginning to realize her potential, and I think exciting things are heading her way very soon. Keep up the great work, Maura!
- Gino Prabhu – Gino never ceases to amaze me. No matter what challenge I throw his way he always rises to the occasion. Gino swam to first place finishes in all of his events, and also dropped time in every event as well, including over a second in the 50 breast, and over two seconds in the 100 IM. One trait I admire about Gino is that he always focuses on his races and how he can improve himself, and never worries about who he is competing against. There were several races this weekend where he was placed in heats with kids much older than him, and he never once let that intimidate him or affect his swimming. That is a very mature way to race for an 8 year old. I can't wait to see what else he can accomplish this season. Great job, Gino!
- Mailyn Price – Miss Mailyn continues to set the pool on fire! She placed in the top two in all of her events, and swam to personal bests in the 25 fly and 100 IM. Her technique across the board continues to improve and sets the bar very high for the Bronze team. She is a tremendously hard worker, is very receptive to feedback, and always displays great sportsmanship. I am very excited to see what more lies in store for her. Well done, Mailyn!
