

Makos Holiday Classic Recap

Our Swimmers of the Meet are:

Bronze – Kate Bambeck. She dropped time in almost all of her events, including five second drops in both her 100 free and 100 IM!

Silver – Luke Gutman. He swam best times in five of his six individual events!

Logan Lawhorn. She had a great weekend, setting new personal bests four of her six events. Logan also achieved a JO cut in the 100 breast, dropping over five seconds from her previous best.

Gold – Cate Kray. She had a perfect weekend, swimming lifetime bests in all seven of her individual events! She qualified for finals in several events, while achieving a JO cut in the 50 free. Cate also achieved a AAA time standard in the 50 fly.

Andrew "Blue" Shyu. Like Cate, Andrew swam to new lifetime bests in all seven of his individual events! Andrew was very consistent throughout the weekend. He also achieved a new JO cut in the 100 fly.

Coach Megan notes, "It was very difficult to limit this choice to even just one boy and one girl from the Gold Group. Everyone swam phenomenal!"

Platinum – Gabrielle Eismann. She had her best swim meet of the season, qualifying for finals in five of her six events. Gabby achieved personal best times in 11 out of her 12 total races over the weekend. The only race Gabby didn't produce a best time was when she went up by .02 in her 200 backstroke Final. In addition to all of her great swims, she achieved AAA and JO cuts in almost every event she swam!
