

Triple Crown Recap

Congratulations to our event winners:

Jordan Aurnou-Rhees
Luke Gutman
Charlie Ferguson
Gabrielle Eismann
Keith Serafy
Spencer Tussing
Adam Lieser
Kate Saczawa
Jack Saczawa
Maddie Penn
Will Elsrod
Jack McHugh
Christian Hosler
Joel Serafy

Francisco Soto
Michael Gutman
Cate Kray
Max Dreisbach
Grace Poorbaugh
Carrie Horan
Miaya Green
Graham Mayberry
Hans Kabelka
Roman Bellisari
Amanda Poorbaugh
Elise Barbour
Ava Row
Spencer Aurnou-Rhees

Our Swimmers of the Meet are:

Bronze – Graham Mayberry. He improved his starts and his times. He had best times in five of his six events. Graham showed so much improvement. I am so proud!

Sarah Beavers. She had huge time drops in almost all of her events and figured out how good she really is!

Silver – Olivia Jordan. She dropped time in the majority of her events and swam the 100 fly for the first time!

Emma Thompson. Emma dropped time in all six events, including an eight-second drop in her 200 free!

Gold – Martina Moncolova. Martina had 100% lifetime bests throughout the weekend, and she achieved a JO standard in the 50 backstroke!

Grace Poorbaugh. Grace set new best times in four of her six events; she also achieved a JO cut in her 50 breaststroke!

Platinum – Keith Serafy. Keith broke 2:00 in the 200 free, almost broke 1:00 in the 100 fly, swam a 53 in the 100 free, and won several events throughout the weekend for our team. He achieved four JO cuts!

Jack Saczawa. Jack dropped over seven seconds and broke 2:00 in the 200 free, achieved best times in four of his five events, and won the 100 backstroke with a JO cut.

Notable mentions: Logan Jordan, Megan Stover and Hannes Kabelka for all becoming the newest minute breakers in the 100 free; Julian Kroll for getting all best times this weekend in all of his events.