

Shelley Millis was a Stingrays' mom who became involved with the swim team in the early '90s. Shelley served many roles, from ribbon writer, scorer at meets, and when the CSL went "high tech", she became Saratoga's first ever computer operator. While volunteering her time on the swim team board, she was also asked to serve as treasurer on the first Saratoga Pool Board, soon after the neighborhood bought the pool from Van Metre.

Shelley was a pillar of the community and a valued member of the Saratoga community. She loved supporting the swim team, was always there to support neighborhood kids and had a love for the sport, supporting her daughter every summer. Sadly, Shelley passed away too early from a rare type of cancer and died at an early age. This scholarship was created in her honor and is given annually to a senior who embodies the same love for the sport that Shelley had.
