

Marin Swim League
Code of Conduct
(Updated: 3.15.23)

One of the primary objectives of the Marin Swim League is to foster and promote the ideals of good sportsmanship, fair play and fellowship for all participants, by creating an environment that nurtures self-esteem in all swimmers and supports the communities which it serves.

The following acts would constitute a violation of the MSL code of conduct:

Any act of discrimination

Any act of bullying - be it verbal, written or electronically communicated

Any act of verbal or physical sexual harassment, whether perceived or otherwise

Criminal offense or conduct

Use or distribution of illegal drugs

Any act of physical misconduct or aggression

Inappropriate conduct toward an official or volunteer at practice or meets

A full description of all potential code of conduct violations can be found in the MSL rules and policies available at marinswimleague.org.

Please report any violation to your coach, club president, meet director, or directly to the Marin Swim League board. Any member or prospective member of any club may be denied membership, censured, suspended or expelled from the league for violation.

###