PIRANHAS NEWSLETTER

Coach's Corner:

Hello Piranhas, I hope you are having as much fun as us coaches are! What a great meet on Saturday! All of us coaches are so impressed with how the meet went. This is a talented group! Above all else, we saw our swimmers being great teammates to each other, and we loved seeing swimmers congratulate the Mazo Barracudas on their swims as well. Sportsmanship is a foundation for our success. Seeing our swimmers humble in victory and defeat means that we have a lot of positive fun ahead of us as we improve throughout the summer!

This week is another opportunity to showcase the many talents on the Piranhas. We are @ Sauk Prairie, and the theme is Decades. Pick a decade, and get in the spirit!

P.S. If you ever miss the deadline for a meet, and you want to attend that meet, please reach out! I am happy to get your family added however I can! GO PIRANHAS!!

PIRANHAS PINS AND RIBBONS

Be sure to check your swimming folder! There are two bins with file folders located in the Sun Prairie Family Aquatic Center bathhouse. They are sorted by last name, one for each family. All swimmers of all ages are eligible to receive ribbons. Piranhas are awarded ribbons for the following: 1st - 6th place for individual events, 1st - 3rd place for relay events, and 1st - 3rd place for exhibition events. All swimmers 12 years and under can also earn a Piranhas pin for a personal best swim! Ribbons and pins will be placed in the folders at some time during the week following a meet. New this year, pins will be attached to an index card in your families folder. Best times can be found following this link!
