

Management of Medical Certificates for Galas

- Swim Ireland impose a fine of €50 to each club in the event that a child is withdrawn at late notice from an event. In order to waive this fine a medical certificate is necessary to be submitted from the gala secretary of Trojan swim club to swim Ireland competition team.
- The medical certificate must not contain personal confidential information it need only include a medical certificate from a doctor stating that the child is unfit to swim. Trojan swim club will not send on any personal, confidential information on a swimmer by Gmail or social media as per GDPR <https://www.dataprotection.ie/>
- Once the medical certificate is sent to swim Ireland, the Trojan Gala secretary can delete it from their phone.
- Swim Ireland will delete this information as soon as it has been checked against the child's entries in an event and noted.
