

To : San Diego Imperial Swim Teams

Congratulations on a successful championship season!

I can't believe it's less than three months to the 2024 U.S. Olympic Team Trials – Swimming! For the first time, USA Swimming will build a pool on an NFL field as Lucas Oil Stadium hosts Trials June 15-23 in Indianapolis, IN. With a total capacity of 30,000 fans, 2024 Trials can become the largest swim meet in history.

As a reminder, single-session tickets are now available starting at just $15. With all-session, single-day, and single-session tickets available, there is a plan for every fan. Check out the order of events and start planning your customized trip to Indy.

Looking for discounted tickets? USA Swimming offers groups of 10+ the opportunity to purchase tickets at a discounted rate. For more information, email Jim Perry at jperry@indianasportscorp.org or learn more here.

Need a place to train? Indy has 20 pools within a 30-mile radius of Lucas Oil Stadium. Plan a team training trip or reserve time to train with a local team. Learn more here.

Want a VIP experience? Purchase USA Swimming Foundation VIP hospitality or Podium Club tickets now. Foundation packages include all-session tickets, hotel, hospitality, and exclusive events throughout the meet.

Interested in swimming in the Olympic Trials pool? Donate to the USA Swimming Foundation before June 7 and swim with an Olympian inside Lucas Oil Stadium.

Worried about down time? This is more than just a swim meet. USA Swimming will take over the city of Indianapolis for nine days and nights. Next door to the stadium, the Indiana Convention Center will host the Toyota Aqua Zone. The Aqua Zone is your chance to grab athlete autographs, check out USA Swimming partner booths, seize exclusive giveaways, and purchase exclusive USA Swimming and Olympic Trials apparel. You might even be a surprise guest on one of the swimming podcasts recording live from the Aqua Zone all week! USA Swimming Live will engulf downtown Indy with live music stages, food trucks, and a 66-foot replica of the Eiffel Tower.

To witness history and be part of the world's biggest swim meet, grab your tickets here or contact Jim Perry at jperry@indianasportscorp.org / 317-237-5021.

See you in Indy!
