

LVSC National Group Time & Discipline Standards

Below is a compilation of considerations used as a part of the process to assess a swimmer's readiness and ability to be promoted into the National group. While these are a few areas of consideration, ultimately the decision to promote a swimmer will remain with the recommendation of the swimmer's current Coach and final approval from the National Coach, Coach Amber.

Practice Time Standards:

It is required for swimmers to achieve 4 of 5 of these practice standards.

Practice Habits:

Swimmers should create habits including, but not limited to:

1. Maintain 80% attendance for 12-18 months prior to National group consideration.
2. 2 Dolphin Kicks off each wall.
3. Not breathing on 1st stroke off any wall.
4. Showing respect & discipline in their behavior toward coaches & teammates.
5. Consistently being in the water on time for practices and for meet warmup.
