

Sierra Nevada Swimming
Board of Directors meeting
Date: April 2016

Report From: Rebecca Landre

X Information only

Safe sport is an exceptional program. It is easy to administer the basics to athletes, parents and coaches. We must do everything that we can to protect our sport and our athletes from any type of abuse.

What's going on?

*the launch of a new Safe Sport initiative, brought to us by Paul Lundsten (MN) and Melissa Gann (OK). Hear Something, See Something, Say Something (or Safe Sport Mondays) is a new education and awareness effort to help spark a national conversation about Safe Sport-relevant issues that impact our clubs.

*Working with Susan Woessner and Maggie Vail at USA swimming on

-safe sport Officiating tools

-Western Zone safe sport programs

-Co-lead Officiating webinar on 4/13

*Update on arrest at SASO meet: The man was sentenced to a year in jail and required to be a lifetime registered sex offender.

Long term plan:

- 1. Safe sport task committee formed and will brainstorm priorities for Sierra Nevada.
- 2. Travel to Denver for Safe Sport Leadership Conference April 22-24