COMMENTS

United States came out with a strong defensive scheme throughout the whole game, not allowing Brazil any easy opportunities to score. The first quarter was all USA. Where they led 3-0. Two out of the three goals scored by USA were on extra man situations. Brazil tries to put some muster in their offensive game but the americans were more than prepared to hold their ground, keeping their defensive intensity while using every chance to score goals. At halftime USA led 7-1. The third quarter was more offense than defense, Brazil finally was able to penetrate the USA defense and score three goals. Not to be outdone, USA scored five goals, three coming from extra-man opportunities. Two quick goals from USA at the beginning of the last quarter was all USA needed to establish game flow and finish strong on the offensive end, USA will battle Canada on Thursday. They were led by Hooper (#2) with 5 goals. Brazil was led by Guimaraes (#11) with two goals. They will go against Argentina on the last game of the preliminary round.
