

Western Zones Open Water Championship was cancelled this year due to a hurricane. The LSC had at least 3 officials at the championship swim to learn.

2023 Western Zone Open Water at Lake Coeur d'Alene - Need officials to get experience, possible through the Iron Man races coming up next year within the inland northwest. Mike Murphey has agreed to be the meet ref, however, we will still need a lot of officials. Open Water officiating is a lot of fun and is much easier than on deck officiating.
